Chapter 1 by Lilly

You know that feeling when you see someone and you think, this is the person who I will tell all my secrets to and nothing will ever come between us. That's how you know you found a best friend. But it isn't as easy as it sounds. I met my best friend in kindergarten. We told each other almost everything. Almost. We fought a lot but this last fight was probably the biggest one yet. I never thought that I would lose her. She came over to my house on a Friday and everything was how it usually was. We watched movies, went outside and ate a bunch of food. When I decided to tell her one of my biggest secrets, that's when our friendship started to end.

3 weeks earlier...

"So we watched a movie and painted our nails whats next?" My friend Emily asked. There isn't much to do at my house. We live in the middle of no where.

"We could play truth or dare?" Truth or dare was our favorite thing to do.

She thought about it. "Yeah, I guess. you first."

I thought about what to say... I know. " I dare you to tell Max you like him in front of his girlfriend." She has been crushing on Max for a while but won't tell him.

"Seriously, Sarah. I'll think about it. Truth or dare?"

I always pick dare I don't know why i decided to pick this day to mess everything up. "um...truth."

She looked shocked that I didn't pick dare. At school in 2nd grade my friends called me the queen of dare because i never picked truth and i would do any dare. "Ok. This is new. um... Who do you like?"

This was why I never chose truth. What the hell is wrong with me. " Can I switch to dare?"

"no."

" Ok but if I tell you you can't tell anyone. Ever!"

"I promise I won't tell anyone now stop being so dramatic it's not a big deal. Whats his name?!"

I hesitated. "Well... /her/ name is Alyssa..."
